

DRY FARMERS WILL EXPLAIN METHODS

Boasting Excursion to Nephi July 10 Has Educational Purpose.

That the people of Salt Lake, Davis and Weber counties may have an opportunity to see something of what is being done to reclaim the arid lands of the state under the scientific process of dry farming, is the purpose of the boasting excursion next Friday to Nephi, which is being planned under the auspices of the Manufacturers and Merchants association and the State Agricultural college. At a meeting of the Commercial club of Nephi, Thursday night, at which representatives of the Manufacturers and Merchants association and the Agricultural college were present, arrangements were completed for the big excursion which is expected to attract at least 1000 people from this locality.

The home of Mrs. H. N. Mayo was the scene of a pretty bridge tea Friday afternoon when she entertained twelve tables for her guest, Mrs. Nelson O. Story, Jr., of Montana. The parlors were bright with white carnations and wild pansies, the library with pink roses and sweet peas. A pretty lace piece covered the table. A cut glass bowl on a mirror base and filled with red sweet peas was in the center. Silver candelabra with red candles and shades were at either end. Tea and coffee were served by Mrs. W. V. Bivens, Mrs. Nelson Story, Jr., assisted by Miss Helen Ellerbeck, Miss Deane Alder, Miss Fannie Evans and Miss Etha Mayo. Prizes were won by Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. John Sharp, Mrs. J. D. Wood, Mrs. G.
